

Anteater Experience

60th Anniversary of UC Irvine

UC Irvine Libraries Exhibit
February through September 2025

COVID-19 @ UC Irvine Timeline

March 12, 2020

First COVID-19 patient arrives at UCI Medical Center in Orange

March 19, 2020

Irvine campus closed

March 2020: UCI Health caregivers established Orange County's first drive-through screening sites

Image credit: Carlos Puma.

March 2020: Outdoor emergency room triage center erected at UCI Medical Center

Image credit: Carlos Puma.

April 2020: Less than 400 undergraduate and international students remained in campus housing

Image credit: Steve Zylius.

May 2020: Health screening required for UCI
Student Health Center visitors

Image credit: Steven Georges.

UCI University of
California, Irvine

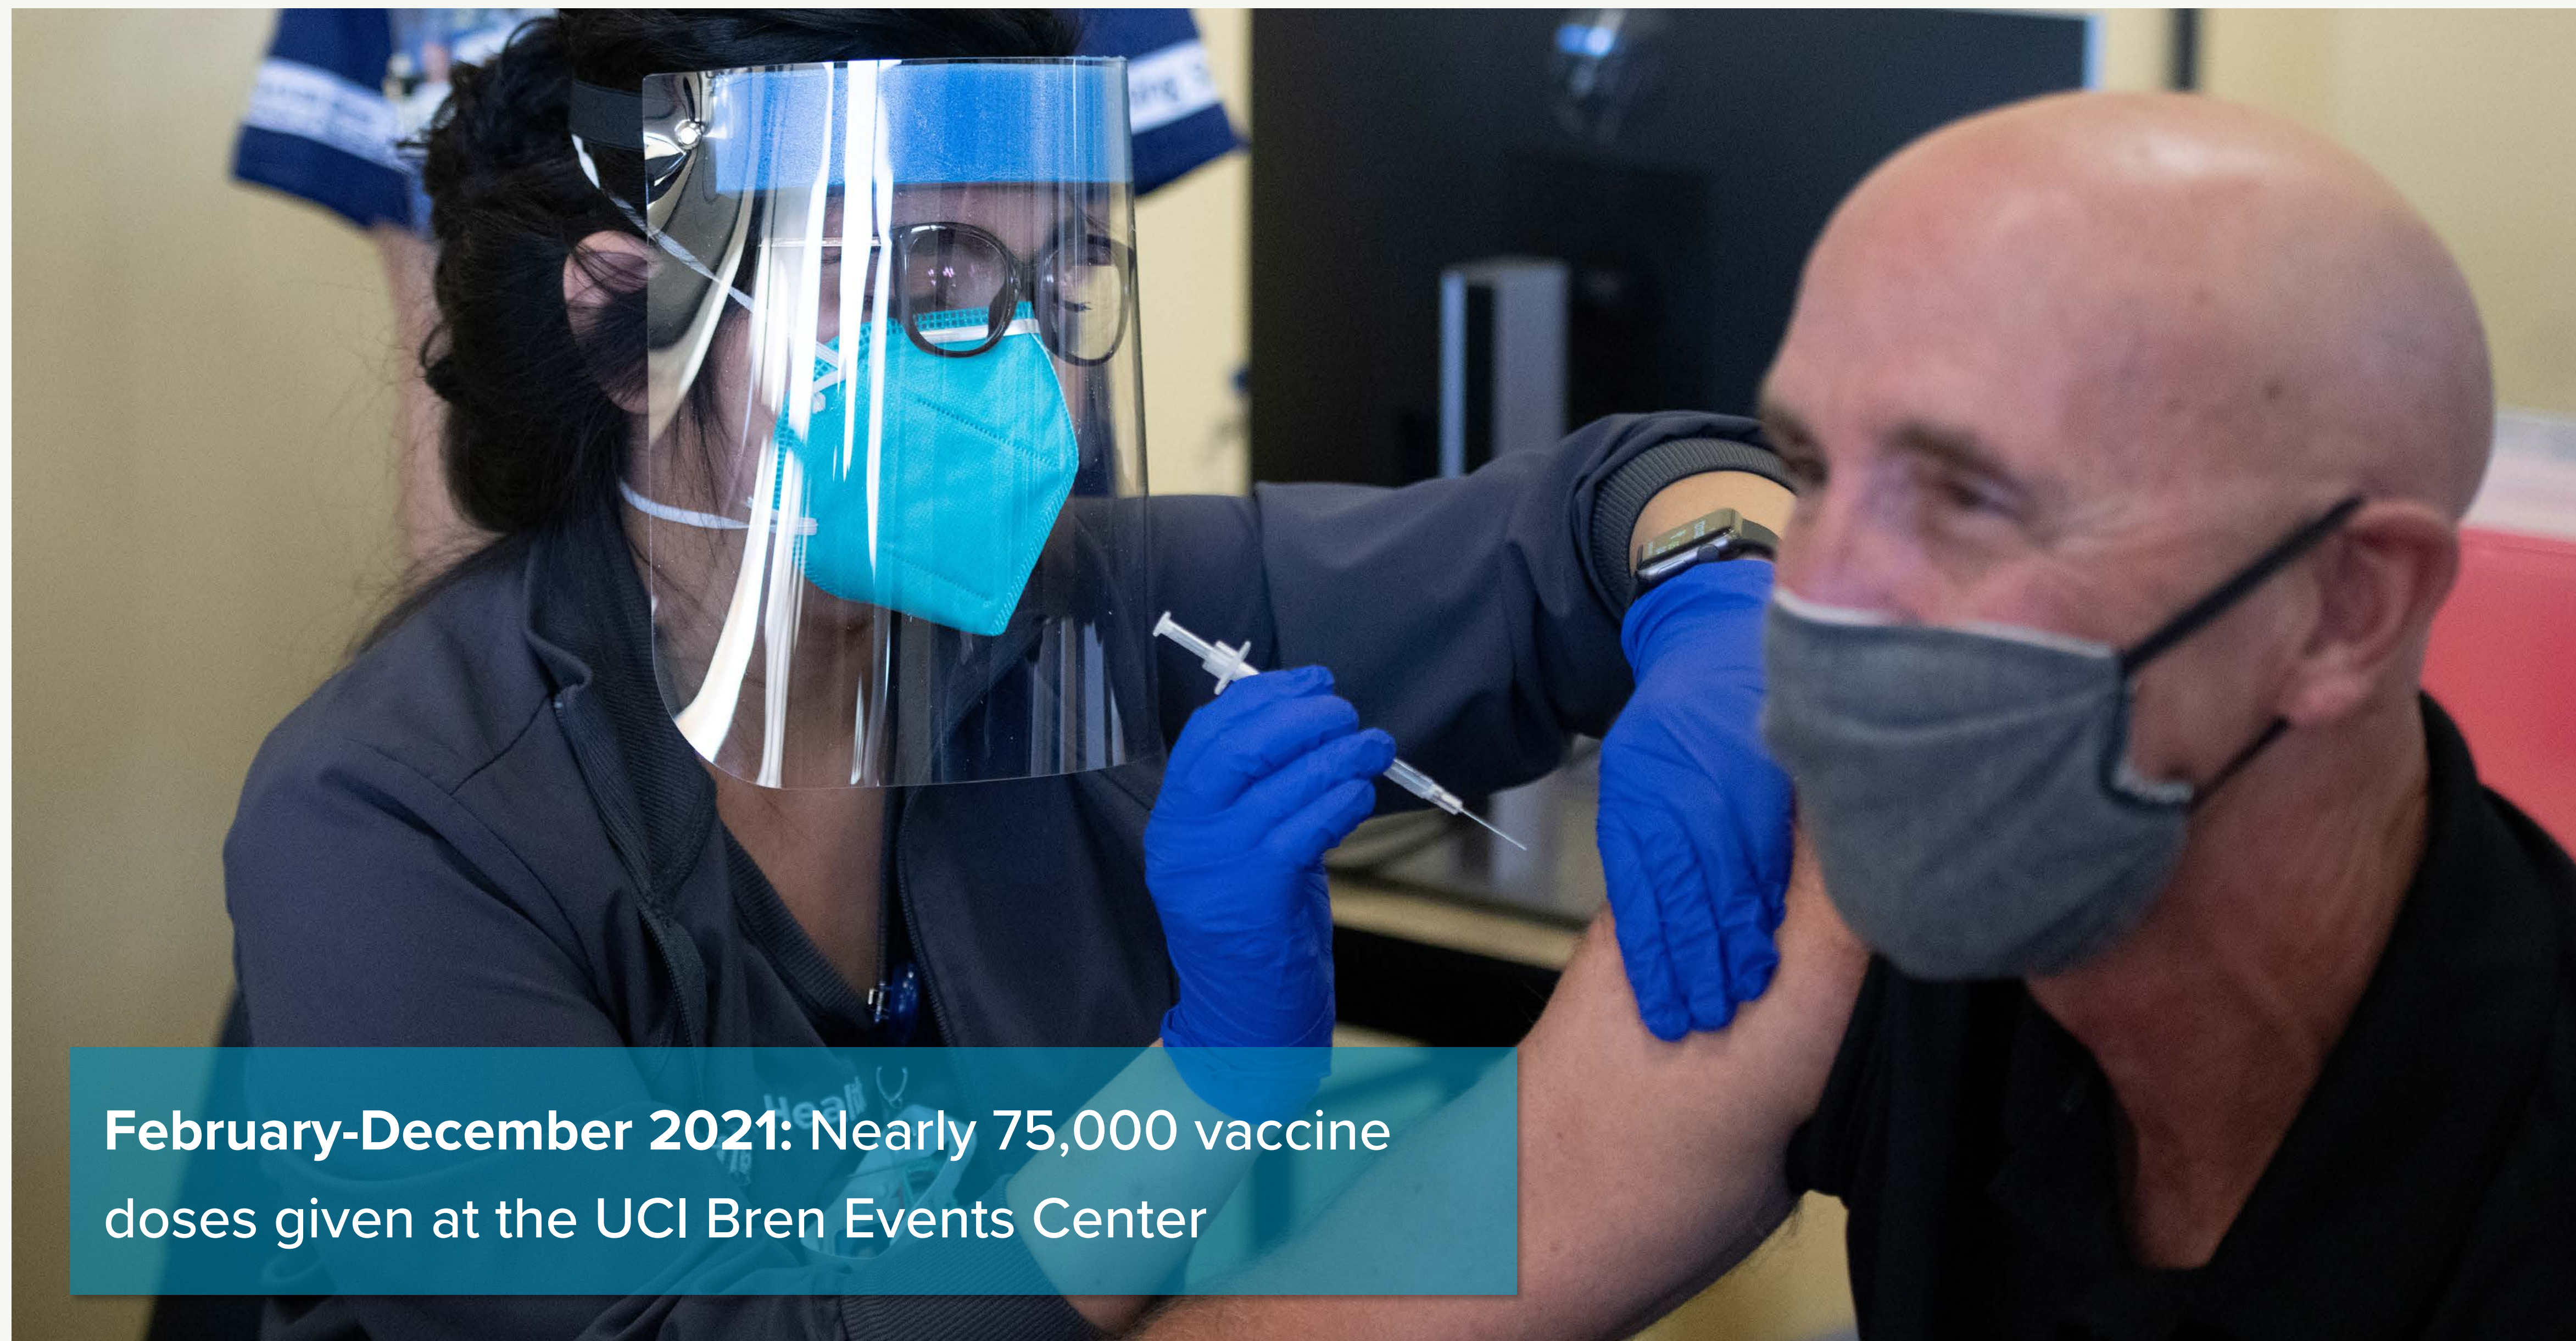

#WorkYourMask

Summer 2020: UCI Health and other public officials recommend use of face masks

January 2021: COVID-19
vaccines available

Image: UCI COVID-19 campaign graphic.

February-December 2021: Nearly 75,000 vaccine doses given at the UCI Bren Events Center

Image credit: Steve Zylius.

September 2021: Students welcomed back to campus after over a year of remote learning

Image credit: Steve Zylius.

December 2021: After virtual ceremonies in June 2020 & 2021, first fall in-person commencement ceremony held in Bren Events Center

Image credit: Steve Zylus.

2021-2022: COVID-19-related safety protocols such as on-site testing and mask mandates remained in effect for more than a year

UCI University of
California, Irvine

FACE COVERINGS

Face coverings will still be required in all UCI buildings.

Image: UCI COVID-19 campaign graphic.

For more detailed information regarding research and activities at UCI and UCI Health, see the “COVID-19: A Call to Action” special report.

For further information about the Anteater Experience: 60th Anniversary of UC Irvine exhibit and other UC Irvine Libraries' exhibits, visit exhibits.lib.uci.edu.